
Hats off for mental health awareness

Posted by Ocean - 2012/05/03 04:30

GOOLWA - From Friday, May 18 to Sunday, May 20 shop owners throughout Goolwa will wear their favourite hats to raise money for mental health research.

The participation of Goolwa shop owners forms part of national Hat Day organised by Australian Rotary Health.

Director of community services and Australian Rotary health, from the Rotary Club of Goolwa, Helen Jones said the awareness days were aimed at promoting the need for more research into mental illness such as depression, and preventing suicide.
